Jurors Acquit Doctor Sander In Mercy Case

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 9.—(A)—Dr. Hermann N. Sander was freed today.

An all-male jury found the country doctor innocent of charges he murdered in an "act of mercy" a suffering cancer patient he couldn't heal.

It took the jury-made of nine Catholics and three Protestants—less than 75 minutes to reach the verdict.

The 41-year-old Dr. Sander showed not the slightest trace of emotion as the words "not guilty" echoed through the small courtroom. There was a chorus of "ohs" from the women spectators. Deputy sheriffs were forced to rap for order.

When the jury was discharged by Judge Harold E. Westcott, Chief Defense Counsel Louis E. Wyman walked over smiling and crying at the same time.

She said she contacted health officers in Dallas and Fort Worth, where tons of horse meat have been found. They didn't think any of the "filly-meat" had been shipped to Corsicana, she reported.

However, as it falls under the category of her duties, she determined to make an investigation in the interest of the citizens of Corsicana.

Big Farmer Vs. Little Farmer— Agriculture's Squabble Over Price Supports Resembles Class Warfare

WASHINGTON, March 8.—(P)—
Agriculture's internal squabble over what kind of farm price supports the government should have is taking on some of the characteristics of class warfare.

As some participants fight is an expectation of the characteristics of class warfare. As some participants see it, the fight is one of big farmers against little farmers.

Attempts to classify the conflicting forces in this manner are showing up in current debates over farm price supports. The debates are growing in intensity; they promise to add to the importance of the farm problem as an issue in this year's congressional elections.
Splitting agriculture—as well as other groups interested in fedorsplitting agriculture—as well as other groups interested in federal farm aid programs—is the question of whether the government should junk its present price support program in favor of one advanced by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and warmily endorsed by President Truman.

Leading the fight for the pre ent program is President Allan B. Kline of the powerful American Farm Bureau Federation. Branan says that the present program would force the little farmers out of agriculture and leave the industry to the big op-

Branan bases his charge on the possibility that the present program, with its system, of flexible price supports, might tend to force the less efficient farmers out of production. Ray Loses Again

AUSTIN. Tex', March 8—(P)—The Court of Criminal Appeals to-day for the fourth time refused to disturb conviction and death sentence of William R. Ray of Fort Worth.

Ray was found guilty of raping a 9-year-old Fort Worth girl.

On Ray's motion for ehearing of a second appeal, the appeal court held in a majority opinion that the case had been properly disposed of.

Ray's second appeal had been on grounds that trial court's entering of its judgment a year after conviction was in error. The appeal court held the procedure had been proper.

NJC Drama Club Presents Program For Civitan Club

The Navarro Junior College Drama Club and speech department entertained the Corsicana Civitan Club Thursday noon with a one-act play.

Entitled "For the Love of Allah," the play told a hilarious tale of mail order marriage on an Alabama farm. It kept the Civitans and their guests in stitches for 40 full minutes.

Players who participated were Nancy Mize, Patty Audrews, Margaret Johnson, Booth Wallace, Gwynn Christie and Robert Wood, Assistants were Gerald Simpson, Jack O'Bannian, Jimmy Bailey and Bob Douglas.

Tom Eady, as chairman of the program committee, introduced the program for the day.

Randolph Mitchell made an announcement to the effect that ticket sales for the Jaycee reception for Gov. Allan Shivers will close today.

A LIVING ROOM on the rear garden side of a house is difficult to achieve on a narrow lot. Here is a plan that does it. The architect says this house could be built on a 40-foot lot in most communities. This is Plan H-6 by Richard B. Pollman, 11711 East Mile Road, East Detroit, Mich. It covers, 1,210 square feet and contains 13,915 cubic feet. Placing the bedroom wing in front. and grouping the main entrance and kitchen entry at the side, permits the living quarters to face the garden. A living-diningporch is planned for real privacy. The plan affords good rirculation. (AP Newsfeatruse).

The senator also brought into his testimony the name of Dr. Philip C. Jessup, the state department's ambassador-at-large, who he said was listed as a sponsor of a subversive organization.

Sen. Tyding (D-Md.) said any persons accused by the Wisconsin Senator will get a chance to testify later in their own behalf.

Miss Kenyon, former New York municipal judge who served a three-year term ending last December as U. S. delegate to the U. N. Commission on the status of women, called McCarthy a liar for his charges that she belonged to Communist front groups.

She said she never heard of most of them.

"Senator McCarthy is a liar. He is 'taking cowardly refuge in his congressional immunity to smear innocent people," she declared.

The guards were quoted by Major Kenneth Kolster, public information officer, as saying there was little outcry from the prisoners after the intial alarm.

"The only blessing—if there can be a blessnig," Kolster said, "is that there was almost no suffering. They must have died almost immediately from inhaling the intense heat."

CARD OF THANKS.

We take this means to express our many thanks to everyone for their many courtesies, for the bountiful food sent over, for the beautiful flowers, and the many acts of kindness at the passing of our dear wife and mother. Especially do we thank the ministers, Dr. Newton, and the nurses staff of the Navarro Clinic. We pray God's richest blessing on each of you in your time of sorrow.—T. W. The board of stewards of First Methodist church Monday night, voted to agree with a resolution condemning the use of the name Methodist by a national "leftist" organization with headquarters in New York.

The organization has been branded subversive and contrary to the ed subversive, and contrary to the U. S. government's principals. It was also pointed out that the organization had not been formed by the Methodist church and had no connection with the church.

The stewards action followed reading of a letter and the resolution from the board of stewards of an Oklahoma Methodist church.

of an Oklahoma Methodist church. The local stewards concurred, voting to write the Oklahoma board a letter of thanks for the submission of the resolution.

Dr. W. W. Carter, chairman, presided at the meeting. The roll was called and minutes kept by W. B. Robinson, secretary. Committee reports were made, progress on the installation of the television set and the fact that the adult division was to place venetian blinds in the recreation room was reported. Tough Schedule For Navarro Is Slated For 1950

Squad Of 25 Reported to Coaches Clark and Akridge

Coaches Ken Clark and Guyle Akridge opened spring football training Monday afternoon at Navarro Junior College, and simultaneously announced the 1950 football schedule for the Bulldogs. The Bulldogs will open their regular season on Sept. 14 in Kilgore against Kilgore's Rangers, and close the regular season on Nov. 23 with the customary game against Henderson County's Cardinals in Athens.

The ten-game schedule includes five home games and five road games. Two of the road games, those against Hillsboro and Henderson County, will be played in the afternoon. The other eight tilts will be played under the lights.

About 25 boys showed up for the first practice of the spring session at the college Monday, Coach Clark reported. Of these, 13 were lettermen from the 1949 team, and some of the remainder were squadmen.

Some of the boys who showed up are not yet enrolled at Navarro, but expect to be this fall. There were a number of boys who came out to practice, but were refused suits on the grounds that practice with the Bulldogs would make them ineligible for other high school sports such as baseball and track, in which they participate in high school before their graduation in May.

"We were glad to have these boys come out and watch," Clark said. "We hope they'll remember us this fall when they get ready to play."

Monday's session was light. After issuance of uniforms there was little time for anything except a few drills in the fundamentals. The boys looked good in this department, however, and the more complicated work will begin soon.

"The lettermen and squadmen looked good." Clark remarked, "and we believe that some of "I believe we are going to have a good two weeks."

The mentors plan to have two scrimmages this week—one Friday and one Saturday. The public is invited to come out and watch.

The spring practice will end about March 20. There will be no intersquad game at the end, but a heavy scrimmage or two is planned toward the end.

March Of Dimes Report Shows

Navarro County Gave $4,642.74

A total of $4,642.74, less that unreported from Blooming Grove has been received in the 1950 March of Dimes for the fight on pollo, according to an announcement by Embry Ferguson, county chairman, Wednesday.

This is approximately $200 less than the 1949 total, Ferguson pointed out, but the Blooming Grove quota is expected to make the final compilation approximately the same as last year.

Corsicana and the schools reported $2,594.30—$1,994.87 from the town and $599.43 from the schools reported $250. The total expenses were listed at $64.39, leaving a net amount raised of $4,578.35.

The National Foundation receives $2,164.17 and $2,414.18 is retained in Navarro county.

Growing Plants From Seed Can Be a Tricky Business

THE COLD FRAME - It gives the gardener a head start.

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeature Writer
Growing plants from seed sounds as easy as rolling off a log. Actually it's a tricky business requiring thought, careful planning and attentiton. Frequently it's discouraging, too, and the results are far from what the bok indicates it's going to be.

Ideally, seeds get their start in a warm, but not too warm, and moist spot and the more you can make that spot act like a greenhouse, the easier it is going to be to achieve healthy strong young plants to set out when the ground is warm and rost danger past.

It can be done in a sunny win-dow—although sunny windows in kitchens frequently aren't too satisfactory because tiny amounts of gas are enough to kill sensitive growing things.

Good, fine garden topsoll is adequate for seed flats. It should be mixed with an equal amount of sand. Germinating seeds do not require any great amount of food, just moisture good drainage and careful handling.

Almost any shallow, well put to-gether wooden box is potentially a flat, and flower pots do nicely, too, although they waste space in a window.

Watering is tricky, and when possible it should be done from the bottom of the box. In any event, provide for good drainage either by breaking up flower pots, a layer of sphagnum moss or good sized stones in the bottom of the seed container. eed container.

Sow the seeds in shallow drills not broadcast—and mark them carefully. Keep the flats in dark-ness and covered with newspaper until the seeds have germinated and then put them in the sunshine.
What happens after this depends what happens after this depends entirely upon their treatment.

When the second set of leaves appear on the young tender plant, it's time for action. They must be transplanted or "pricked off" and set farther apart to give them growing space. Sometimes the seedling is too small to be handled by growing space. Sometimes the seed-ling is too small to be handled by the fingers and a pencil or orange stick helps to move them to flats. Press the seedings gently into the soil, water them thoroughly and keep them out of direct sunlight until they have had a chnace to re-cover from the shock. Damping off is the scourge of seedlings, a growth encouraged by lack of air and soil conditions in the flat that encourages the reten-tion of water. There are fungicides

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Hours, days, weeks, months and years are spent on some of the cases filed under the Home Service department headed by Miss Jessie Mae Hilliard. Few are the applications that can be settled with one visit or investigation. Many of the case histories reveal they have been active since World War II started, and many are cases involving veterans of World War I.

Paper work and investigations demand trips be made all over and letters written to many sections of this country and to foreign lands. The Home Service section works hand-in-hand with the Veterans Administration and provides many of the details that national branch of the government needs to complete a claim.

Without the Home Service branch, many claims of veterans and their families would string out for months while investigations were being completed.

For crops harvested in 1949, the farm operator will be asked to report the average, yield and value of the crops sold or to be sold. Livestock inventories will be reported as of April 1, 1950, while inquiries for the production of livestock and livestock products refer to the 1949 calendar year. To further simplify the questionnaire, a special form will be used for nearly every state. listing only the crops principally grown in that state.

went on in the daily life of Christian believers two thousand years ago.

First Paul, in Acts 20, tells how he conducted his ministry among the newly made believers. He was a faithful pastor, and committees seeking a new pastor today are invited to turn to this chapter and read what the New Testament states a faithful pastor should be and do. Paul, with humility of mind and spirit, labored with everyone who had a spiritual need, taught Christian truth to his people, called all men to repentance, and pointed them toward the spiritual resources of Christ for their salvation. He did not organize campaigns, start any building projects, or go about shaking hands and slapping everybody on the back. His ministry was spiritual and reached to the deepest needs of the soul. He was what a pastor ought to be everywhere and in every age.

People and Leaders Together.

We are given two other hints as to what went on in the early church. We are told that the bishops fed their flocks, which means that those leaders who were under Paul's supervision gave their full time to the spiritual aspects of their ministry and found that they had their hands full.

Also the members of the church took a hand, not feeling that all responsibility rested with the pastor and his close associates. We have it right out of the word of God that whatever gift man has can be used in Christ's service. Paul lists a great number of needs in the church, and these range from the spiritual to the practical, from things requiring skill and learning to things requiring only a ready hand and a willingness to work.

Our churches today are doing a fine work. Without them and their faithful pastors and people the nation would go to pieces pellmell. But our greatest need is less organization and more personal ministry to the spiritual needs of individual men and women, boys and girls. More authority in preaching, more diligence in teaching, more anxiety for the state of men's souls—these are the basic needs in today's Church. How to meet these needs is the theme of today's lesson.
